

GVQC QuiltFest 2017 – Improvisational Round Robin Challenge Registration

Saturday June 3, 2017 at 10 AM

In Brief: Teams of four show off their improvisational design skills in a round robin format. No rulers allowed. Each member of the team brings an initial composition no larger than 12” by 12” inches and fabric that will be used by their teammates to expand on it. Each stage of the round robin will be timed. At the end of the competition, prizes will be awarded to each member of the winning team. Only quilt tops will be produced. No binding or quilting will be required. In the spirit of improvisation, initial compositions and accompanying fabric selections are not to be shared with other participants prior to start of competition.

The fee is $20 per person due at the sign up. Those who do not have a team of 4 will be contacted prior to the show with the names of the other team members.
